Dear Roy,

The falling temperatures remind us that summer is well and truly over and with it JAM FEST 31. However, I continue to receive many warm comments from those who shared our JAM FEST weekend, especially from new comers who were introduced there to Jamaican quality and vivacity.

JAM FEST 31 could not have succeeded without your sterling contribution and commitment. I am deeply grateful for all your hard work there and for your unflagging spirits. Many participants and visitors alike have commented on the "JAM FEST 31 Team" and were surprised to learn that they were all volunteers! Working together, under often very demanding conditions, has proved to us and the world that we can achieve near well anything we really want. And again, we "pulled off" a very public 3-day event with "positive vibes" as ASHE would say.

Thank you for volunteering and for seeing your task through in fine style.

With sincere appreciation,
